

PARENT- TEACHER ASSOCIATION

A Parent–Teacher Association (PTA) is a formal organization composed of parents, teachers and staff that is intended to facilitate parental participation in a school.

PTA serves as a channel of communication between the school and the community. They advise on educational needs as perceived by the parents and promote quality teaching and learning.

- The PTA does not interfere in the day-to-day administration of the schools.
- 50% of PTA members should be women.
- Duties of the PTA committee should involve assisting the school in planning and organising educational programs, seeing the syllabus is completed, to collect and present information regarding school fees.
