SEPTEMBER 2023 CLASS PRE PRIMARY

Dear Parents,

As September unfolded, we allowed our plans to bloom and the events took a special significance because our little ones brought their own flavor and colour into the picture

This past month has been a journey of learning, growth, and community engagement, and we're excited to share the highlights and insights with you.

Good and Bad Touch Workshop

Our "Good and Bad Touch Workshop" provided a safe and open space for parents and children to discuss personal boundaries and safety. We are proud to have facilitated conversations that empower both parents and kids to recognize and respond to various situations involving touch. The workshop emphasized the importance of communication and trust, reinforcing our commitment to keeping our children safe. We also conducted a session on child defence and safety.

Phonic Workshop

Following the Good and Bad Touch Workshop, our "Phonic Workshop" was a delightful learning adventure for our young participants. Through engaging games, activities, and stories, we delved into the world of phonics. We witnessed the enthusiasm and curiosity of the children as they embraced the foundations of language. Their progress was a testament to the power of interactive learning.

Highlights from the Workshops:
Open and honest discussions about personal boundaries and safety.

Parent and Students actively participating in phonics activities, discovering the joy of language.

Parents and children bonding over shared learning experiences.

Valuable insights and takeaways from our expert facilitators.

Family day

We are excited to share the wonderful moments from our Jr. KG Family Day celebration, which revolved around the beloved story of "The Rainbow Fish" by Marcus Pfister. This special day was designed to not only entertain but also educate and foster family togetherness.

The day began with a captivating reading of "The Rainbow Fish" by Marcus Pfister. The tale of sharing, friendship, and the shimmering scales of the rainbow fish inspired both young and old, setting the stage for our adventure.

It was followed by integrated learning activities for parents and students.

Family Day was not only about learning but also about the joy of learning together. It was a special occasion for parents and children to bond, create memories, and reinforce the love of reading and education.

Teachers day

Our primary students took center stage on Teachers' Day, presenting a delightful mix of song, skit, and mimicry. With their creative talents on full display, they not only entertained but also showed their deep appreciation for their teachers. Laughter and applause filled the air as students celebrated their mentors with joy and gratitude.

Gokulashtami celebration

We recently celebrated Gokulashtami with devotion and enthusiasm. Our festivities included vibrant decorations, storytelling, the Dahi Handi event, traditional dress, and sweet treats. This celebration served as a reminder of Lord Krishna's teachings of love, virtue, and unity. Festival was integrated with Math-counting of beads and bangles, EVS – Identifying the feather, Healthy food and food made with milk. English – Building vocabulary words with the things around and used by Krishna. It was a holistic learning experience.

Farm animals

At Royal Oaks World School, we believe that learning can be both educational and enjoyable. In the past month, our young learners have embarked on an exciting journey into the world of farm animals through a series of engaging activities. Here's a glimpse of the fun and educational experiences they've had:

Farm Animal Activities:

Farm Animal Bingo: Our students sharpened their observation skills with a game of Farm Animal Bingo. They eagerly searched for images of cows, chickens, pigs, and more, learning to identify these animals and their unique characteristics.

Farm Animal Art:

Creativity flowed as children painted and crafted their favorite farm animals. This hands-on activity not only honed their artistic talents but also deepened their understanding of animal appearances.

Hindi Diwas

On September 13th, our school came alive with the vibrant colors and melodies of Hindi as we celebrated Hindi Diwas. It was a day filled with enthusiasm, where students from every grade showcased their love for our national language.

In the Jr. KG section, young talents sang a Hindi song that resonated with the theme of unity in diversity. Their harmonious voices demonstrated the universality of our language, bringing smiles to everyone's faces.

Our Sr. KG students took the stage with confidence and grace. They recited Hindi poems that touched upon the rich culture and values embedded in our language. Additionally, their speeches highlighted the importance of preserving and celebrating Hindi as an integral part of our heritage.

Hindi Diwas was not just a celebration of a language but also a tribute to the diverse culture and traditions it represents.

Wild animals

At Royal Oaks World School, our young explorers have embarked on a thrilling journey into the world of wild animals. Through engaging activities and lessons, they've not only discovered the names of fascinating creatures but also delved into the sounds they make, the food they eat, and the homes they inhabit. Here's a glimpse of their wild adventure:

Learning Animal Names:

Our students began their adventure by learning the names of various wild animals from across the globe. From lions to zebras, they expanded their vocabulary and knowledge of the animal kingdom.

Exploring Animal Sounds:

The excitement escalated as our young naturalists imitated the sounds of these animals. Roaring like a lion, trumpeting like an elephant, or chirping like a bird, they explored the rich auditory tapestry of the wild.

Ganesh Chaturthi celebration

This year, our Ganesh Chaturthi celebration was not only a joyous occasion but also a commitment to the environment. With great enthusiasm, our students came together to create clay idols of Lord Ganesha, prepared Modak and decorated our surroundings in an eco-friendly manner.

Creating Clay Idols:

Our young artists showcased their creativity by crafting beautiful clay idols of Lord Ganesha. With guidance from our dedicated teachers, they molded the sacred form of Ganesha with love and devotion. These eco-friendly idols not only symbolized the spirit of the festival but also reflected our respect for nature.

Family day – Senior K.G

Our Sr. KG students and their families came together for a day of laughter, learning, and bonding during our recent Family Day celebration. The event was inspired by the beloved children's book "The Very Hungry Caterpillar" by Eric Carle, and it was filled with exciting activities that both kids and parents enjoyed.

The COO / Principal briefly addressed the families the families present stressing on the need of constant involvement and discipline.

The COO / Principal escorted the Parents and Grandparents to practice "Tough Love" to say "NO" whenever it was necessary.

The Very Hungry Caterpillar Storytime:

The day kicked off with a delightful reading of "The Very Hungry Caterpillar." The colorful illustrations and charming tale of transformation captured the hearts of both young and old, sparking the imagination of our little ones.

Maze Solving Adventure:

Inspired by the caterpillar's journey through fruits, we set up a thrilling maze-solving challenge. Families teamed up to navigate through the maze, solving puzzles and finding their way to the delicious fruits just like the caterpillar did in the story.

This also involved English vocabulary, environmental studies and Art as integrated learning.

Family Day was not only a day of learning but also a day of togetherness and bonding. We witnessed the joy of parents and children coming together to celebrate the love of learning and storytelling.

THANK YOU
